HONG KONG

The cornerstone of the Annual Symposium on EU-Asia Relations in Financial Services is the candid, intimate exchange of ideas and dialogue between global financial counterparts. This dialogue takes place in small group discussions and plenary sessions, as well as in more informal sessions at meals. Keynote addresses and panel discussions also serve to initiate and enhance the interactive dialogue, which is conducted under Chatham House Rules in order to foster an open exchange of ideas. These discussions are synthesized and presented on the final day of the Symposium in a plenary session.

Programme format:

A three-day symposium off-the-record and closed to the media with keynote speeches, high-level cocktail and dinner, small group break-out sessions, panels and networking.

Delegate profile:

This event is by invitation only and limited to around 100 high-level regulators, policy makers, academics and sell-side and buy-side firm representatives.

About the 1st Annual Symposium on EU-Asia Relations in Financial Services:

The inaugural edition of this EU-Asia Symposium series took place in June 2014 in Singapore. The event had received support from 120 selected participants representing various regulatory bodies and financial institutions from Europe and Asia. Among over 30 senior speakers we had European Commission, EU Delegation to Singapore, EU Delegation to China, International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO), Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC), Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS), Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA), Financial Supervisory Agency of Japan (FSA), Bank Indonesia, Financial Service Authority of Indonesia, the Philippines' Department of Finance, and many other leading financial organisations.

The symposium program ranged across several topics affecting EU-Asian relations in financial services, and focusing most importantly extraterritorial effects of financial instruments legislation, the evolution of the prudential regime (Basel 3 and beyond), the current challenges faced by the EU-Asian asset management industry, as well as the importance of global commodity markets and international trade.

09:00-9:05 Introduction

09:30-10:45 Panel 1: Financing large infrastructure projects, are new models emerging?

- Joe Bannister, Chairman, Malta Financial Services Authority
- Naoto Shimoda, Chief Executive in Hong Kong, Bank of Japan
- Alicia Garcia Herrero, Visiting Faculty, China Europe International Business School (CEIBS)
- Dora Neo, Director, Centre for Banking & Finance Law, Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore (NUS)
- Thomas Jacquot, Senior Director, Corporate & Infrastructure Ratings, Standard & Poor's

Moderated by:

Karel Lannoo, CEO, Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS)

The issue of how to finance large infrastructure projects is topical both in the EU and in many Asian emerging economies. These investments are generally considered a key factor to boost aggregate demand and competitiveness. Public institutions traditionally play a major role in financing infrastructure but the fragile public finances in the EU and the declining growth in the emerging economies are demanding for alternative models. The Juncker-plan, for example, relies on a highly leveraged public fund aimed at attracting a large amount of private investments. The strategy of development banks (EIB, EBRD, CDB, etc.) increasingly take the form of public-private partnerships rather than "pure" public financing. Are large investments in infrastructure still an important driver of growth? Are new trends emerging for infrastructure finance (e.g. new financial products)? Are there any lessons that the two blocks can learn from each other?

Moderated by:

Robin Huang, Director, Centre for Financial Regulation and Economic Development, Faculty of Law, Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK)

Corporates in both major Asian countries and the EU still heavily depend on bank financing. Albeit alternatives in the form of capital markets are being developed. Both shores are developing policies to support the expansion of bond markets and other securities markets. What has been achieved so far? What are major initiatives undertaken and best practices that could serve as guidelines for other policymakers? What are the prospects for equity vs debt financing? Private placement vs public listing? What is the role of securitizations and covered bonds? What are other impediments to access finance (e.g. collateral, infrastructure, professional investors, tax etc.)?

12:15-13:00 Small Group Sessions on Topic 1

Participants will be divided into three groups in order to discuss Topic 1 in greater detail. Within each group, two Discussion Leaders will moderate and ensure that all the different angles of the topic are explored and that answers to specific questions are provided; and one Reporter will keep record, and will then convey this back to the Reporters Meeting.

 Industry & Financial Markets Association (ASIFMA)

A major challenge for the development of the European and Asian asset management industries respectively is to market products cross-border. The environment is characterised by a multiplicity of different distribution and investor protection rules. In Asia, some passport initiatives have been developed (e.g. Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, ARFP, ASEAN passport), but the increasing demand for investment products by a growing middle class calls for a more comprehensive solution. What are the main barriers that are preventing the evolution of these passport schemes in Asia? The EU has been able to develop over the years a successful framework with the UCITS, is this model still valid for Europe and can this be taken as a point of reference for Asian countries? Is there a need to channel funds into more long-term investments to boost returns in the current low interest environment? What is the nature of the fiduciary duty that asset managers bear towards their investors?

15:30-16:15 Small Group Sessions on Topic 2

Participants will be divided into groups to discuss Topic 2 in greater detail. Within each group, two Discussion Leaders will moderate and one Reporter will keep record, and will then convey this back to the Reporters Meeting.

FRIDAY 29TH MAY - DISCUSSIONS

(Venue: Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA), Auditorium, 56/F, Two IFC, Central)

Page | 8

08:30–09:00 Presentation of the main findings of the break-out session discussions on Topic 1 and Topic 2

09:00-10:30 Panel 4: The internationalisation of the RMB: global economic implications

- Vincent Lee, Executive Director (External), Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA)
- Robert Elsen, Financial Counselor, Representative of BaFin, German Embassy Beijing/China
- Angelo Cicogna, Head of Representative Office in Tokyo, Bank of Italy
- Nick Collier, Head of European Government and Regulatory Affairs, Thomson Reuters
- Douglas Arner, Professor, Asian Institute of International Financial Law, University of Hong Kong (HKU) and Member, Hong Kong Financial Services Development Council

Moderated by:

Nickolas Reinhardt, Director, Afore Consulting

The internationalisation of RMB markets represents a major change in global finance. Hong Kong is at the forefront, facing increasing competition. How do the speakers see the role of the RMB changing as a medium of exchange to a store of value in the following years? To what extent and in which sectors will capital markets be impacted by this change? Are current market infrastructure, regulations and supervisory frameworks resilient enough to withstand higher and more volatile capital flows? What will be the impact on the forex market and the relative value compared to currently leading currencies?

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:35 The evolution of global collateral markets: how to manage risk mitigation and deal with asset encumbrance?

(11:00-11:20) Presentation

Manmohan Singh, Senior Financial Economist, International Monetary Fund (IMF)

(11:20-12:35) Panel Discussion

- Oliver Bettin, Managing Director, Head of Debt BCU, APAC, Global Markets, Deutsche Bank
- Paul Symons, Global Head of Government Relations, Euroclear
- Manmohan Singh, Senior Financial Economist, International Monetary Fund (IMF)
- Philippe Dirckx, Managing Director, Head of Markets and Initiatives, Asia Pacific, SWIFT

Moderated by:

Diego Valiante, Head of Financial Markets and Institutions, Centre for European Studies (CEPS)

The way how asset encumbrance may affect risk mitigation techniques is still an unexplored field. The session will therefore look at the current status of international regulations on capital and risk mitigation techniques, such as margining and other forms of collateral. How can collateral cliff effects be anticipated? What can be learned from the central banks' liquidity easing in recent years? What are the most effective ways of dealing with resolution? Is the financial infrastructure robust enough or too fragmented? How is overreliance on collateral going to affect the pricing of unsecured markets? Can secured markets only price risk properly? How to define high quality collateral? Does this create a bias towards sovereigns?

12:35-12:45 Closing Remarks

Mark Austen, CEO, Asia Securities Industry & Financial Markets Association (ASIFMA)

Buffet Lunch 12:45-14:00
